PAPERS

Default Tip Suggestions in New York City Taxi Cabs Submitted

The objective of this research is to identify the different sources of default effects in taxi cab tip suggestions and to identify the most efficient tipping scheme.

Norm and Behavior Change Among College-Aged Republicans and Democrats in Response to COVID-19 Submitted

Using a large survey panel, we explore the changes in precautionary behavior norms among students by political affiliation. Co-authored with Catherine C. Eckel, Erin Krupka, Oluwagbemiga Ojumu, Tanya Rosenblatt, Nishita Sinha, Rick K. Wilson.

Civil Rights and Recidivism In Progress

In this research, I identify the mechanisms in which civil rights restoration influence recidivism rates. This project exploits administrative changes in the clemency process in the State of Florida in order to obtain exogenous variation.

DoD Cyber Excepted Service: Labor Market Analysis and Options for Use of Compensation Flexibilities Forthcoming

Smart Tipping: Default Tip Suggestions in Point of Sale Application In Progress

Using a regression discontinuity design, I estimate the influence of an increase in tip suggestions using a feature within a point of sale application.

Determining Ability-to-Pay Through Online Dispute Resolution Platforms In Progress
